TEUTONS OCCUPY MONASTIR; FLAG OF AUSTRIA RAISED

Bulgarians Refrain From Greece.

Capture of Last Important Town in Serbia Seriously Threatens Flank of the Allied Troops.

Servian Detachments Defeated by Germans Near Montenegrin Border—
Italy to Send Munitions.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Dec. 3, by wireless to Say-ville.—Scattered Servian detachments in the region southwest of Mitrovica, near the Montenegrin border, were defeated by Teutonic forces in engagements yesterday, and more than 1200 Servians were taken prisoners. It was announced today by army headquarters.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Occupation of Monastir by an Austro-German force at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon is reported by Reuters' correspondent at Saloniki.
The correspondent, who says his information was received in a telegram from Florina, Greece, adds that the only flag hoisted when the city was occupied was the Austrian. The Bulgarians did not enter Monastir, remaining at Kanioli, south of the city. It is reported however, that they will march into Monastir today.

The effect of the capture of Monastir, the last Servian city of importance to hold out, on the position of the Anglo-French forces is awaited with the greatest interest, for the penetration by the invaders of this part of Macedonia may threaten the flank of the allies in the Vardar and Cerna valleys, where they are on the defensive. No important events have occurred there for some time, and with Monastir in the hands of their opponents the allies may soon be engaged in an important battle.
The Austrian flag, instead of the Bulgarian, was hoisted over Monastir, presumably in an effort to relieve Bulgaria of the possibility of offending Greece.

Italy to Send Only Munitions.
A delayed dispatch from Rome confirms an impression concerning Foreign Minister Sonnino's remarks to Parliament regarding Italian help for the Servians. It had been assumed that he had promised an Italian expedition would be landed in Albania and unofficial reports have been received that Italian detachments have been landed at Avlona, but according to the latest dispatches Baron Sonnino merely declared that the independence of Serbia always had been one of the cornerstones of Italian policy, and for that reason Italy would aid Serbia across the Adriatic, providing supplies of arms and ammunition.

Rain Delays Italian Operations.
Except for Russian reports of minor successes on the Austro-Italian front, reports from the Dardanelles indicate that the combatants are engaged almost continuously in minor encounters, which no one seems to have any marked effect on their respective positions.

BRITISH RETREAT IN MESOPOTAMIA

Declared by Turks to Have Fled in Demoralization on Irak Front, Losing 5000 Men.

BERLIN, Dec. 3, by wireless to Say-ville, N. Y.—The Overseas News Agency today gave out for publication the following concerning the fighting between the British forces and the Turks in Mesopotamia:

"The Turkish headquarters report of
Dec. 2 says the Turkish troops on the Irak front are pursuing the British in order to make their defeat more complete."

"The British losses in the engagement from Nov. 22 to Nov. 26 exceeded 5000 men and officers. The soldiers, demoralized, left their regiments and fled in neighboring points. The British one day carried off about 2000 wounded.
Among the wounded is the political agent in the British headquarters, Sir Komel.
Night southwest of Asat.

"The British were unable to stop their retreat in the strongly fortified town of Asat. They, therefore, tried to halt at 20 kilometers (12 miles) southwest of this town, with their rear guards protected by monitors, but a sudden Turkish attack the night of Nov. 30-Dec. 1 forced them farther back in the direction of Kut-el-Amara, 119 kilometers (74 miles) south of Asat.

The Turks took in Asat and its neigh-

RICH ST. LOUISAN TRYING TO SAVE MAN FROM PRISON

Paul Brown Likely to Ask President for Pardon for M. G.
Winegar.

WILL QUESTION CLIENTS

Embezzlement by Agent to Be Charged if the Statements
Are Found to Be True.

Paul Brown of 19 Washington terrace, wealthy broker, has been making a determined effort for months to save M. G. Winegar from having to serve a sentence of five years in the Leavenworth prison for using the mails to perpetrate land frauds. It is said that steps are now being taken to ask President Wilson for a pardon for Winegar. Brown told a Post-Dispatch reporter today he was working in Winegar's behalf because he had been a lifelong friend of Winegar's parents at Montgomery City, Mo.
Winegar, he said, had done his first work in Brown's office. Brown does not believe the prison sentence, passed in February, 1913, was in accordance with the facts, and he still hopes Winegar will be spared a prison term, although the latter has exhausted all the court resources open to him.

Winegar, who lives at the Planters Hotel, and George L. Coburn, who lives at the Buckingham Hotel, would have been started to the Federal prison last Wednesday if they had not succeeded in obtaining a 30-day stay mandate of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, which last April affirmed their sentence. Unless they succeed in obtaining another delay, they will be started to prison
Jan. 1.

Brown would not discuss the things being done in Winegar's behalf, but United States District Attorney Oliver said the stay of sentence had been obtained on the plea that new evidence had been discovered, and that friends of Winegar and Coburn wanted to have a soil survey of Alabama lands, which they had sold, to determine whether the testimony given at the trial was justified.

At the trial it was shown that Colburn was president and Winegar vice president of the Washington and Choctaw Land Co., which owned 39,000 acres of land in Alabama and Mississippi. They advertised it extensively for sale, from their offices in St. Louis, stating that it was place to establish towns, as a railroad ran through it. They asked $17.50 an acre.

The Government, at the trial, showed that the land had been bought by the company in 1898, and that it was marshy and boggy and that the railroad mentioned was a logging road.
The District Attorney said that Winegar and Coburn apparently hoped to prove by the survey that the land was as represented and that they had not been guilty of presenting the facts properly at their trial. With such a favorable report, he said, President Wilson probably would be asked to grant a pardon.
He declared that, from what he knew of the case, he did not see that Winegar and Coburn would gain by the delay.
He would not state whether he would oppose the application for a pardon. He said the Government had made a strong case against Winegar and Coburn in all courts in which the case had been heard.

Brown is on Winegar's bond for $5000.
Coburn's bond, for the same amount,
was furnished by a professional bond-man.

Supremacy With a "S"

St. Louis merchants, eager to facilitate early Christmas shopping, for the mutual benefit of themselves and the shoppers, rushed their copy to the Post-Dispatch office yesterday, Thursday, to the extent of

113 Columns

They knew, from experience, that this would put their store news in the hands of every family in St. Louis and suburbs.
The other four St. Louis newspapers all added together got the crumbs from the advertising table to the extent of only

107 Columns

In other words the Post-Dispatch alone carried

6 Columns More of advertising, from our Home-Merchants than all 4 of the other St. Louis newspapers combined.

In no other metropolitan city in the United States is any ONE newspaper so overwhelmingly supreme in its field.

Why?

Because the Post-Dispatch covers this field as a blanket.

It is the ONE paper in every home and the ONLY paper in most homes.

FORD WILL SPEND FORTUNE, HE SAYS, TO HELP STOP WAR

Millionaire in Interview Denies Any Ulterior Advertising Motive in Peace Plan.

"NOBODY CAN STOP ME"

Declares He Will Visit Germany and England—Passport for Neutral Countries Only.

By Leased Wire From The New York Bureau of The Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Henry Ford discussed his personal sincerity in his peace movement today at the Hotel Biltmore.
Ford was informed that many persons were of the opinion that he was not altogether sincere in his mission; that the scheme was one of personal, if not business, publicity. Seizing his interviewer by the shoulders, the automobile manufacturer burst forth into this defense of himself and his motives:
"A lot of people seem to question my sincerity in this matter, but they are sadly mistaken. I am absolutely sincere, and I shall sail on the peace ship myself. Furthermore, to show my sincerity, I want to say that late last night
I drew up my final will and testament.
I also turned over all my stock to my son, Edsel, to act as my proxy, and deeded him power of attorney for all my business."

Opposed to War Always.
"I have been opposed to war always and was looking about for the most plausible way of ending it. This trip to Europe appeared to me as the most practical plan yet revealed."

"At least it will receive publicity, and publicity sets the people to thinking."
"If we fail in this mission we shall try something else. I am not going to stop until this war is stopped—and I don't care how much money it costs me.
What we will try next time I do not know, but I am ready to finance any proper plan that will stop this terrible war."

Ford was asked whether he would visit England.
"Yes, I am going to visit England and I am going to visit Germany, too," he replied.

"And nobody's going to stop me from visiting those two countries. I am going into England and Germany on business, not on a peace mission. I have a big factory in England and I am planning to build a factory in Germany when the war is over."

"I guess there will be about 175 people on the Oscar II and there will be 54 newspaper reporters among them. And I am going to see to it that the newspaper people get the best of treatment. For they, after all, are the most important members of the mission. Even though I am criticized and even though the mission may not be all right, the publicity will set the people thinking about war and peace."

The Scandinavian-American liner Oscar II, on which Ford has engaged passage for his peace expedition, will depart from New York tomorrow afternoon on schedule, according to agents of the line. Mr. Ford has engaged the first and second cabins for his peace envoys. In addition, 40 passengers going home to Norway, Sweden and Denmark for the holidays, will occupy the third-class quarters. All passengers will be examined at the pier, and it is said no person will be permitted to go aboard without one.

Ford Seeking Wisdom.
Halvard Jacobsen, the line's manager,
says the Oscar II should be in Christiania by Dec. 14 or 15. Concerning the possibility that British warships might take the steamer to Kirkwall, he said that few of the line's steamers had been taken there recently, as the British Government has been content with stopping the vessels off the north coast of Scotland or sending an officer on board to examine the passenger and cargo manifests.

"I don't know when I'll return, but I expect to come back much wiser than I am now," said Ford.
Representatives of newspapers of belligerent nations are to be barred from the Oscar II. A. F. Bullock, American correspondent of the London Daily Mail, made application to go with the vessel,
and in the application said his paper wanted to pay his way. The application was refused, the reason given being that this was wholly an American enterprise.

Mrs. Ford Not Going.
Mrs. Ford expressed her regrets on being unable to accompany her husband, said her son Edsel had also wanted to go, but that work in the factory would keep him too busy.
"But no matter the result," he said,
"the world will know that there is a deep feeling throughout this country and other nations against war. The chance that great good may come makes the attempt worth while. There are enough men and women sitting back with folded hands and unseeing eyes."

FORD'S PASSPORT
IS SENT TO HIM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Henry Ford was granted a passport by the State Department today to visit Norway, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands. A representative brought his application from New York. The Citizenship Bureau of the department by noon had issued more than 125 passports to peace advocates who will sail tomorrow on the Oscar II. None made application to visit any other than neutral countries.

CAPTAIN BOY-ED

HARVEY OBTAINS EVIDENCE AGAINST PAYNE AND BECKER

Circuit Attorney Is Told $7300 Placed for Investment Was Used for Other Purposes.

An investigation which is expected to throw light on the transactions of the bankrupt brokerage firm of Payne & Becker in the Chemical Building will be begun by Circuit Attorney Harvey this afternoon.

Randolph Laughlin, an attorney, visited the Circuit Attorney today and told him he represented persons who had claims amounting to $7200. Laughlin said his clients had placed their money in the hands of the Payne & Becker firm to be invested in certain specific ways and that it had been used for other purposes.

Laughlin promised to have his clients at the Circuit Attorney's office during the afternoon to tell the details of the transactions with the Payne & Becker firm.

Bontie A. Becker has not been found since the firm closed the doors of its offices in the Chemical Building, Nov.
20. Laughlin said he had been informed as to Becker's whereabouts.

After visiting the Circuit Attorney's office, Laughlin told a Post-Dispatch reporter he had been informed that Becker was in St. Louis and that he was seen in the audience at the Columbia Theater last night.

Police Judge Granville Hogan today filed a petition with Judge Dyer in the United States District Court, asking that John C. Tobin, receiver for Payne & Becker, be ordered to turn over to him
two promissory notes with an aggregate face value of $30,000.

The notes were made by the New Haven Investment Co. and were payable to A. D. Hess who indorsed them over to Hogan.

In his petition Hogan said he entrusted the notes to the Payne & Becker firm to be sold for him on commission and that Receiver Tobin now refuses to surrender them.

WIDOW TRIES TO DYE HAIR AUBURN AND IS POISONED

Lead in Coloring Produces Coma, but Physicians Think Life Can Be Saved.

Mrs. Anna Shriver, a widow, 69 years old, of 3302 Morgan street, is at the city hospital suffering from acute lead poisoning, which the hospital physicians say was caused by a dye with which she tried to change the color of her hair from black to auburn.

Mrs. Shriver was taken to the hospital five days ago in a state of coma, after she had shown signs of dementia. In the last few days the symptoms of lead poisoning became apparent. Antidotes are being administered and it is believed her life can be saved.

Mrs. Shriver's wrists and finger joints are so weak she has no gripping power,
and her ankles will not support her.

CONVICTS "NOT IN," OFFICIAL FINDS ON MAKING A "CALL"

One at the Jefferson City Country Club, Another Out on Errand.

Assistant Circuit Attorney McDaniel
went to Jefferson City yesterday and visited the penitentiary. When he asked for several men he had helped to send to prison he heard they were "not in."

As McDaniel stepped from the train
he was surprised to see Dan Harrison, a negro forger walking down the street. Harrison is serving a two-year term.

"Where are you going, Dan," asked McDaniel.

"O, just on a little errand," replied
Dan. "I'm a trusty."

McDaniel went to the penitentiary and asked for Jack Westover, another negro convict. Westover wasn't in, either. He was at work in an overall factory. The clerk said he would send a messenger for him.

When the messenger appeared McDaniel had another surprise. The messenger was a convicted negro murderer, Jack Franklin, once sentenced to hang in St. Louis.

McDaniel then asked after Ray Stevenson, the automobile bandit.

"Ray's gone out to the country club,"
said the clerk.

McDaniel had visions of a convict playing golf with State celebrities, but was reassured when the clerk told him Stevens was acting as the Warden's chauffeur and had driven the Warden out to the club.

McDaniel is going back to the penitentiary sometime when the folks are all in.

QUITS $30,000-A-YEAR JOB BECAUSE HE IS 70

Head of Rockefeller Iron Company
Says He Wants to Step Out at High Tide of Efficiency.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. 2.—L. M.
Bowers, more than 70 years old, former executive head of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co., and one of the men who managed the company's strike, resigned today a $30,000-a-year office with the Rockefeller interests, declaring that there was nothing more to be avoided in old men than the notion that they are as young and bright and bright at 70 as they ever were.

"I made up my mind that I would quit when at the high tide of efficiency, if possible," he said, "and when I was most valuable and esteemed; not to drop down and out, but continue in affairs in which my age and experience counted for something in an advisory capacity."

PEACE LEAGUE UNDER INQUIRY

PARIS, Dec. 2.—The French section of the Women's International League for Permanent Peace has been ordered by the Paris police authorities to discon-

The officers of the French section were summoned before the Commissary of Police today to explain their activities.
The women maintained that they were acting according to their convictions and the police are continuing their inquiries.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Secretary Lansing is understood to to have informed Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, that Capt. Boy-Ed, naval attache to the German Embassy, has rendered himself persona non grata to the United States Government as the result of his connection with the members of the Hamburg American Line who yesterday were found guilty in New York.
York.

This was understood to have been the subject of discussion at the Cabinet meeting today. Secretary Lansing at the end of the Cabinet meeting flatly refused to answer any question on the subject, and other members of the Cabinet were equally silent.
The German embassy also refused to talk about it.

The State Department was believed to have mentioned in open court by the Government prosecutors.

Finally the State Department has suddenly intervened and cautioned the officials of the

LINDELL ENTRANCE TO STAND WITH MINOR CHANGES

Public Service Board Sets Aside Cunliff Plan — To Abolish the Circus.

WILL EXTEND ONE ROAD

West Pine Boulevard to Be Prolonged on Curve to the Grand Drive.

Members of the Board of Public Service yesterday rejected Park Commissioner Cunliff's elaborate plan for a new entrance to Forest Park, but at the same time they ordered three changes which they believe will relieve traffic congestion at the park entrance. The changes ordered are:

The Lindell circus, around which traffic now circles at King's highway, will be abolished.

A jog in the north line of Lindell boulevard, west of King's highway, will be straightened out by the construction of a triangular park, which will extend 45 feet south of the present curb line at King's highway, and run westward to a vanishing point about 600 feet west of King's highway.

West Pine boulevard, from King's highway, will be extended into the park, in a curved prolongation, to connect with Grand Drive.

Will Not Obstruct View. Commissioner Cunliff told a Post-Dispatch reporter today that the triangular strip, which will be added to the curb line on the north side of Lindell boulevard, will not interfere with private vehicle driveways and pedestrian entrances to the fine residences there, and will not obstruct the view from the residences into the park. The present private driveways and entrances, he said, will be extended to the new curb line. The only inconvenience resulting would be a longer walk from the curb line to the building line.

By extending the curb line 45 feet south at King's highway, on the south end of the James Campbell residence, Lindell boulevard on the west side of King's highway will match the north curb line of Lindell to the east of King's highway. This is expected to eliminate collision points. The strip will be narrowed as it runs west, until, at a point 600 feet west of King's highway, it merges into the present curb line.

The additional curbing parkway will not add to the property owned by Lindell boulevard residents, as the city now owns the property there between the curbline and the north boundary of the sidewalk. It would merely be an extension of city property, and would be cared for by the Park Department.

Expected to Relieve Traffic. The board expects the West Pine extension in Forest Park to relieve traffic congestion. On busy days, one way traffic rules will be adopted, and traffic officers will direct inbound vehicles over Grand Drive and outbound vehicles over the new West Pine Drive. At other times, traffic in both directions will be permitted on both roads. The new road will be 60 feet in width and about 1200 feet in length.

The board may in future decide to extend the West Pine drive across Grand Drive to Lindell at the north side of the park, as Commissioner Cunliff recommended, but at present, this outlet would not add traffic materially, the members believe.

Commissioner Cunliff had proposed that a semi-circular road be extended from West Pine boulevard through the Park to Lindell Drive, and that Grand Drive entrance at Lindell be abolished to the point at which it would come in contact with the new roadway.

Cunliff contemplated the removal of the Laclede Pavilion and the erection of an Italian colonnade of marble pillars, 30 feet high and 200 feet long, which would stand close to the site of the present pavilion. A small lake with a fountain and cascades draining from the colonnade into it was another feature of the plan.

Plan Was Disapproved. Many objections were voiced at public hearings, and the plan was disapproved by the Municipal Art Commission, the local chapter of the American Institute of Architects and residents generally in the vicinity of the entrance.

Commissioner Cunliff prepared to carry out the plan without first obtaining the formal approval of the Public Service Board. A meeting yesterday of the board in committee of the whole gave the first official consideration to the plan. The committee meeting was attended by President Johnson and Directors Tolson of Public Welfare and Talbot of Streets and Sewers.

A plan submitted by Robert H. Keiser, 44 Portland place, to solve the traffic problem by elongating the Lindell circus in a westerly direction, was rejected by the board members. The Lindell circus will be eliminated entirely, as in operation it has been found to impede traffic in rush times to the extent of forming a blockade for many minutes.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU! You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the blood-making oil-food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's after sickness. Nurses advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or injurious drugs.

Post-Dispatch Christmas Festival Doll Dressers May Get Ideas From These Clever Parisian Novelties

ANY St. Louis women are dressing dolls for the Post-Dispatch Christmas festival. They may get ideas and inspirations from this attractive photograph of five international dolls that were dressed by Mme. Rostal of Paris who is famed for her costume dolls. From left to right, they are in French, Italian, American, Turkish and German costumes.

ORDERS FOR 1000 CHRISTMAS DOLLS HAVE BEEN MAILED

Recipients to Dress Little Figures for Post-Dispatch Festival at Coliseum.

Orders for 1000 dolls to be dressed for presentation to little girls, guests of the Post-Dispatch Christmas Festival Association at the Coliseum on Christmas day, have been sent out. They should reach their destinations today. Others will follow from day to day.

The purpose is to enable those who desire to obtain the dolls in advance of the regular delivery by the Post-Dispatch, about Dec. 30. Upon receipt of the order the holder may obtain the doll either in person or through a neighbor.

The orders for dolls to be costumed will go only to those who have sent in requests for them, and delivery of dolls will be made only upon the order. Where deliveries are to be made at homes or clubs, there will be upon the coupon requests on file in the Post-Dispatch office, and from which the routing will be made for the regular delivery about Dec. 30. This detail of the arrangements is for the protection mainly of those who have evinced real desire to aid in the hospitality by sending in requests. It would be unfair to them to supply dolls to those who, at the last moment, remembered an earlier desire to aid but had neglected to indicate to the Post-Dispatch Festival Association, and called to obtain one.

This is the season when the thoughts of children naturally turn to Santa Claus, and with thousands of them the idea is uppermost that the Post-Dispatch controls his movements and benefactions. Here is a sample of the personal work in the myriad details of the Christmas Festival Association:

"Dear Santa Claus: I noticed in the Post-Dispatch that you were giving away dolls at Christmas. Do please send me and my little sister a doll apiece. I am 8 years old, and my little sister is 3. My papa and mamma like dolls, and have so many other children to tend to that they can't get me hardly anything. I am a little black-haired doll."

It is the heart yearning of a girl born to parents of foreign birth, whose environment is that of the north side tenement district, the type of little girl for whom happiness on Christmas day the men and women, boys and girls, who constitute the Post-Dispatch Christmas Festival Association find intense satisfaction in striving eagerly for weeks.

CHARLES SHOTWELL'S CASE IS DROPPED BY G. H. WALKER

Nelle Froese Entered in Charge of Chauffeur Accused of Stealing Lorgnette.

The case against Charles Shotwell of Douglas, Ark., charged with the theft of a $40 lorgnette from Mrs. G. H. Walker of 11 Hortense place in the summer of 1913 at Kennebunkport, Me., was nolle prossed by Circuit Attorney McDaniel in Judge Fisher's court today.

The reason given was that Mrs. Walker did not want to prosecute and that D. D. Walker, her father-in-law, who paid for bringing Shotwell from Arizona a month ago, was in such poor health that he could not appear as a witness.

Shotwell was a chauffeur for the Walker family at the time of the alleged theft. He was said to have given the lorgnette to a woman after his return to St. Louis. Later he married Mrs. Walker's nurse and they went to Arizona and the other woman told Mrs. Walker about the lorgnette. Shotwell was indicted and Walker gave him a check for $200 to cover the expense of bringing Shotwell back.

When the case was first called three weeks ago, Shotwell's attorney had Walker subpoenaed as a witness for the defense. He did not appear and an attachment was issued. When he was brought in he said his attorney had told him he did not have to appear. Besides, he was too ill, he said, to testify. The case was continued and today it was nolle prossed.

Won't You Dress a Doll for Children's Christmas Tree?

WON'T you dress one or more dolls to aid the Post-Dispatch Christmas Festival Association in making little girls happy Christmas day? There are thousands of these pretty dolls, 12 inches long, with blonde heads, brown or blonde hair, and eyes that open and close. The Post-Dispatch has provided them, and they are undressed. It would never do to distribute them in that condition.

Volunteers are requested to provide, finish and place a dress upon each of the dolls, individual taste to determine the fabrics and styles.

For the five best dressed dolls—taste alone to be the test of merit—prizes of $5 in gold will be given by the Post-Dispatch. Little girls thrill with pleasure Christmas day, write your name and address on the appended blank and send it to the DOLL DEPARTMENT, POST-DISPATCH.

Officers of organizations may obtain a number of dolls for their members to dress.

MELLEN PLANNED TO SAVE MORGAN FROM U.S. INQUIRY

Testifies He Was to Take All Blame for Deal With Grand Trunk in 1912.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Charles S. Mellen told the jury in the trial of the 11 former directors of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad today how he had asked to go before the Federal Grand Jury, which investigated the so-called New Haven-Grand Trunk deal in 1912 and take all responsibility for the deal.

Mellen, who was indicted for conspiracy to defraud the New Haven-Grand Trunk deal, testified that he had asked to go before the Federal Grand Jury, which investigated the so-called New Haven-Grand Trunk deal in 1912 and take all responsibility for the deal.

"I thought," he said, "that by telling a straightforward story to the grand jury, I could put the whole investigation on the bum. I wanted to take the responsibility and keep Morgan out of it. I was afraid he had done something I didn't know what and I wanted to keep him out of the nasty mess."

Mellen made the request in a letter to District Attorney Meyer, which he said he had prepared in consultation with Edward D. Robbins and Lewis Cass LeMay, two of the defendants, after Mellen had had an interview with Morgan.

The witness explained that Morgan had "been obsessed with the idea that the New Haven ought to acquire the New London Northern from the Grand Trunk."

Morgan about two months previous had had an interview with Edson J. Chamberlain and Alfred W. Smithers, president and chairman of the Grand Trunk, respectively, at which Mellen said Morgan had insisted that the Grand Trunk sell the New London line to the New Haven.

METERED TAXIS HERE FORCED OUT BY THE JITNEYS

Substitution of Touring Cars and Limousines Brought Losses to Missouri Company.

CLOSING CONCERN'S AFFAIR

Assignee Explains Why Clock-Registering Machines Do Not Pay in St. Louis.

The business of the Missouri Taxicab Co., which made an assignment in September for the benefit of creditors, is being wound up by Lester I. Herman, the assignee. He says he is not able to tell on what basis the claims will be settled.

The difficulties of the company, Herman says, began with the substitution of touring cars and limousines for taxicabs, and the finishing touch was given by the jitneys.

The company did very well when it operated regulation taxicabs, but after a time, when competition became more keen, one of the companies substituted touring cars, and the others had to follow suit. From touring cars the next step was to limousines and each change meant heavy losses through the sacrificing of the machines that were discarded.

Limousines Sacrificed. When Herman took charge of the firm's affairs it owned seven limousines which had cost from $300 to $500 each. Under forced sale they brought from $100 to $200. The losses sustained on the limousines were preceded by losses on the touring cars when they were discarded and by losses on the taxicabs when they were discarded. These losses, with the heavy running expenses, brought on disaster.

Herman attributes the disappearance of taxicabs from the streets of St. Louis, while they flourish in other great cities, and in many smaller ones, to the fact that St. Louis has a Union Station. In other cities, he says, where there are several railroad stations, the taxicabs are kept busy transferring transients from one station to another and from hotels to the different stations. This patronage, with side trips, enables them to "make money."

No Demand for Taxis. In St. Louis, he has found, there is practically no demand for taxi service except between Union Station and the principal downtown hotels and this business is not enough to pay taxi companies and private owners of taxis. Although the rates are higher than in New York and other cities the revenue is insufficient and the regulation taxicabs have disappeared.

The companies which formerly operated the taxicabs now maintain a fleet of limousines and flat rates have almost entirely superseded meter rates.

The jitneys, Herman says, have encroached on the taxicab business of the Missouri company, by cutting the rates. The Missouri company was unable to survive under all these adverse conditions and the assignment was made.

Germany Believes British Destroyed Allied Submarine. Gen. French's Report That Aeroplane Sank Enemy Under-Sea Boat Is Contradicted.

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—"In spite of the German denial of reports circulated by a British news agency that a British aeroplane had sunk a German submarine, the news agency now gives details of the alleged combat, says the Overseas News Agency, which adds that 'German competent authorities repeat that no German submarine has been destroyed by a British aeroplane. The German newspapers point out that if the English report is correct there is no doubt that a British or a French submarine has been destroyed.'"

Field Marshal Sir John French in an official report, Nov. 22, said: "In the afternoon (of Sunday) a British aeroplane destroyed a German submarine off Middleburg. It was seen to break in halves."

FATE OF SERVIA RESTS WITH ITS FUGITIVE RULER

Bulgarian Premier Says His Country Will Annex Part of Conquered Territory.

BERLIN, via London, Dec. 3.—The fate of Servia is bound up with the fate of its fugitive King and dynasty. In the opinion of the Bulgarian Premier, who also says Bulgaria intends to annex all the regions with a Bulgarian population and that Austria-Hungary will take such measures as are necessary to insure future freedom from Servia, at the Balkans and intrigues. The developments of the war, he said, have not impaired Greco-Bulgarian relations and there is no desire in Bulgaria to ignore Greece's just aspirations.

M. Radislavoff, the Bulgarian Premier, so expressed himself in an interview obtained by Leo Lederer, the Berliner Tageblatt's correspondent. The Premier's remarks concerning Greece confirm and supplement declarations made in an interview with him by the Associated Press several weeks ago.

M. Radislavoff remarked in answer to a question concerning the future status of the conquered districts: "I think it better that questions which belong in the realm of the coming peace conference should now be discussed only to a limited extent. It may be taken for granted that the national idea of Bulgaria having been accomplished, all Bulgarian soil which is now groaning under the hateful yoke of Servia will be united for all time with Bulgaria, while Austria-Hungary will do everything necessary to eliminate for the future the political and military dangers of the past. What is to happen to the remaining Servian territory and indeed to Servia, it is impossible to foresee at present, the more so since nobody knows the future of the great Servian dynasty."

The correspondent referred to the possibility of increasing the political complications, the nearer hostilities approach the Greek frontier. To this M. Radislavoff replied: "This is possible, since the British and French have transferred their base of operations for the struggle against us, under violation of Greek neutrality, to Greek territory, but we believe we need not fear complications in the situation."

"I am delighted to be able to establish again that this war at least has brought about no deterioration in the relations of Greece to us. We can understand fully Greece's wish to have its territorial integrity guaranteed. We respect even the wishes which Greece formally communicated to Servia when Servia was ready to cede territory to us, namely, to have a strong strategic frontier between itself and Bulgaria."

Criticism Method of Warfare. "We believe comprehension exists in Greece of the severity of the struggle in which Germany, Austria-Hungary and Bulgaria are engaged, and that she will understand that we, your allies, cannot recognize in the continuing violation of the neutrality of a neighbor a legal method of warfare on the part of our enemies."

"If the French, British or Servians retreat into Greek territory, we must demand their disarmament in accordance with the recognized principles of international law."

U. S. TO PROTEST AGAINST BRITAIN'S TAKING OF HOCKING

Demand Expected That Prize Court Rule Whether Ship Is Partly German-Owned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Vigorous representations will be made to Great Britain by the United States against the regulation of the American steamship Hocking without prize court proceedings. This became known today after the receipt of official confirmation from American Consul-General Young at Halifax of reports that the Hocking had been held.

The ship has been detained at Halifax since her seizure by a British warship when en route from New York to Norfolk.

Ambassador Page at London had already been instructed to make vigorous protest, if unofficial reports that Great Britain intended to regulate the Hocking were found to be true. It is supposed here that he has received confirmation in London, although no word had come from him early today.

Called Violation of Law.
The action of Great Britain is to be vigorously protested as in violation of international law. A demand will be made, it is understood, that the ship be retained in prize court on the charge that she is partly German owned and that the court act promptly in the case.

The representations probably will include also the cases of the Genesee and the Kankakee, which also are owned by the American Transatlantic Co. of New York. The State Department had been notified by the company that the Genesee at St. Lucia, West Indies, had been requisitioned, and that the Kankakee, now en route to Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, would be requisitioned.

Consul-General Young's dispatch from Halifax said that when the order allowing requisition was granted by the prize court in Halifax yesterday it was stipulated that the crown should give an undertaking for the appraisal value of the ship. The crown, under this arrangement, agrees to pay the amount of the appraisal into the court.

Officials of the State Department are arranging the legal arguments which may be used in the case. They have found that during the Civil War certain neutral ships were seized and requisitioned by the United States, before prize court adjudication. Most of these ships, however, are said to have been blockade runners.

Authority for Requisition.
The Hocking was requisitioned under authority of a rule of prize court procedure, provided for by the order in council, reading as follows:
"Where it is made to appear to the prize officer of the crown, that it is desired to requisition, on behalf of his majesty, a ship in respect of which no final decree of condemnation has been made, he shall order that the ship shall be appraised, and that, upon an undertaking being given, the ship shall be released and delivered to the crown."

The American Transatlantic Co. is a Delaware corporation which was formed recently by Richard Wagner of New York and Wisconsin. It purchased in ships, nearly all of which before the war were flying the flag of foreign countries, now neutrals. The status of the vessels was questioned by Great Britain and applications made to the Department of Commerce for their transfer to American registry were held up, pending investigation of statements that their ownership was largely German. The State Department ruled, however, that the vessels were entitled to American registry on a prima facie showing that they were owned by an American corporation.

London Paper Denies Three Ships Were Requisitioned.
LONDON, Dec. 3.—The Morning Post says it has been officially informed that the statement of Richard G. Wagner, president of the American Transatlantic Co., that the British Government has requisitioned the three ships Hocking, Genesee and Kankakee is untrue.

EIGHT INJURED IN ONE DAY IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Chauffeur, Who Is Hurt, Will Be Accused of Driving Machine Recklessly.

FOUR CARS IN COLLISIONS

Truck Strikes Stone, Driver Falls Off and Machine Runs
Up on the Curb.

Eight persons were injured in automobile accidents yesterday afternoon and last night. One of the accidents, the police say, was caused by Fred Borgesser, a chauffeur, of 4006 Morgan street, operating an automobile when under the influence of liquor. He is held a prisoner at the city hospital and a warrant was issued charging him with reckless driving, under the law which provides that for the first offense punishment may be a fine of from $25 to $100 and for the second a fine may be imposed of from $50 to $200 or 90 days imprisonment or both, with revocation of license.

Borgesser, driving a machine belonging to the Hudson-Phillips Motor Car Co., 215 Locust street, east on Cook avenue at 5:45 p. m., struck a Vandeventer avenue car. The automobile was thrown against the curb and Borgesser was hurled out. His left collar bone was fractured and his face cut. At the city hospital a diagnosis of alcoholism was made.

Autos in Collision.
An automobile belonging to Henry Schroeder, 246 Louisiana avenue, driven by Victor Held, 272 South Broadway, and that owned by Joseph B. Heinger, 200 Arsenal street, driven by himself, collided at Louisiana and Oregon avenues. Albert Gutenberg, 47 years old, 1288 President street, and Louis Ottenad, 8 years old, 2617 Hoffmeister avenue, riding with Held, were thrown out. Gutenberg's right ankle was sprained and he suffered a contusion of the right hip and abrasions of the left hand. Ottenad's left wrist was sprained and he suffered contusions of the left arm and knee and abrasions of the scalp. Both were taken to the Alexian Brothers Hospital. Heinger was arrested, charged with careless driving.

John Baker, 29 years old, 2509 Morgan street, was driving an auto truck belonging to the Jones Woodenware and Paper Co., 214 Spruce street, west on Carroll street between Eighth and Ninth streets, when one of the wheels struck a stone. Baker looked back and lost control of the machine. He fell off and one of the wheels passed over his foot. The machine ran up on the sidewalk but did no damage.

Bailey Wood, 15 years old, East St. Louis, was struck by an automobile belonging to Mrs. Ida Pauley, 2622 Sullivan avenue, as it was being backed into the curb by George E. Graubner on Broadway between St. Charles street and Washington avenue. He suffered a cut on the nose. After being treated at the City Dispensary he went home.

Machine Hits Pedestrian.
An automobile driven by A. C. Duncan, 2446 Kingsbury place, struck a push cart owned by the General Printing Co., in charge of Gamaliel Bonner, 225 La-ruelle avenue, at Fourth and Olive streets. Bonner's knee was bruised. He refused medical attention.

An automobile belonging to Walter Himmier, 12524 Alaska avenue, and a machine owned by James O'Brien, 2411 North Jefferson avenue, collided at Twelfth street and Cass avenue. Mrs. Amelia Dienhart, 24 years old, of 1222 Park avenue, was in Himmier's machine. Her left shoulder was bruised. She refused medical attention.

Two Pairs of Trunks Robbed.
Earl Schobert and Earl Massey, occupying a first-floor front room at 3949 McPherson avenue, last night told the police that they were awakened about 1 a. m. by footsteps in their room and saw two burglars by the reflection of a hall light. The burglars took $4 from Schobert's pockets and $1 from Massey's. They jumped out of the front window.

R. & O. to Put Fans in Tunnels.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 3.—Officials of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at a conference with the West-

Virginia Public Service Commission yesterday, decided to install fans in the longer tunnels on that road between Parkersburg and Grafton, W. Va., for ventilation. Trainmen complained that engines on heavy trains were often overcome by coal gas from the engines.

The Post-Dispatch is the only evening newspaper in St. Louis that receives and publishes the Associated Press.

Consul Canada Coming Home.
VERA CRUZ, Dec. 2.—W. W. Canada, the American Consul, sailed yesterday on the steamer Esperanza for New York, having been granted a vacation by the State Department at Washington.

Week of Prayer Named.
NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America announced last night that it had designated the week of Jan. 2 to 9 inclusive as a "week of prayer," when prayers for the restoration of peace in Europe will be offered throughout the United States.

Bonus to Powder Employees.
TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 2.—Announcement was made by the Atlas Powder Co. last night that all employees who have been with the company a year will receive a cash bonus of 10 per cent of their wages. About 300 men are affected.

To get ahead, a man must invest in something. Buy a Home. See the Real Estate offers in the POST-DISPATCH. Real Estate columns today. More than 2000 home offers every Sunday.

Santa Claus has put a real, working Wireless Telegraph Station in our store and it will be in operation in the morning, so we will ask that the little ones be brought to our Toy Shop, where they may write their own messages to Santa Claus, give them to the operator and see them actually transmitted by a high-powered sending instrument over the barren wastes to Santa Claus' workshops at the North Pole. This Station will prove not only interesting to the little ones, but to everyone else, who is not familiar with wireless telegraphy.

AMERICAN BEAN SHIP DODGES GALE AND SUBMARINES

Andrew Welsh With $150,000 of Boston Staple Safe in Swedish Port.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. filed yesterday, says:

"The American steamship Andrew Welsh has become a center of attention in Scandinavia. Her history to date follows in brief:

"After being chased by British patrol boats in the Atlantic and by British submarines in the North Sea, crippled by a series of storms, she put into Bergen in distress. Norway granted the stranger permission to return to England, but she started for Helsingfors, Sweden.

Cargo Worth $150,000.

"Again experiencing bad weather, she took refuge outside the Skaw, finally arriving at Helsingfors, where it was found there was no receiver for her cargo of beans, valued at $150,000.

"The vessel remained quiet for some days, but last night a steamer arrived from Lubeck to convey her to Germany. A start was made in the night, but a Swedish torpedo boat arrived on the scene and forced the Andrew Welsh to turn back to Helsingfors."

No Steamer by That Name.

Available maritime records do not list a steamer called the Andrew Welsh. The American bark of that name, a vessel of 80 tons, sailed from San Francisco Aug. 19 with a cargo of beans for Helsingfors.

A dispatch from Christiana Nov. 17 said the bark had been towed into Christiana. She was boarded by a party from a British patrol boat off the Shetland Islands, it was said, and ordered into Lerwick, but a storm carried the vessel towards the Norwegian coast, where she was taken in tow by the steamer Russian.

COMMON SENSE ADVICE TO THE BILIOUS

Explains Cause and Relief of Coated Tongue, Loss of Appetite, Foul Breath, Sallow Complexion, Dizziness, Dull Headache, Bleed, Etc.

Biliousness is caused by an inactive or torpid liver—this upsets the entire system and causes the symptoms given above.

The liver secretes the bile which is nature's laxative for regulating the bowels and is necessary to healthy digestion. Thus you must realize the necessity of keeping your liver in order if you wish to avoid the wretchedness of a bilious attack.

Biliousness should not be allowed to go on, as it may cause gall stones, chronic catarrh of the bowels, appendicitis, hemorrhoids and bring on serious kidney and stomach derangements. Biliousness may be easily relieved and its consequences prevented by common sense safety-first treatment.

Take the simple laxative Salvo Liver Pills (prescribed and recommended by the Salvo Company, among the leaders in the health-safety-first movement in America.)

At home, local representatives and members of this great organization can say that we know just what is in this ready-to-use, non-drowsy, non-purging, safe treatment for biliousness and constipation.

Every one who's taken them on our recommendation has come back to thank us. They are thorough and they don't give the cathartic habit. We always urge their use in place of calomel and other violent, habit-forming, mineral purgatives.

We say to the busy man, keep this little bottle in your vest pocket—then you're sure. Salvo First.

We are sole agents in this section for the Salvo Remedies and Toilet Preparation.

Have you gotten your book on Health-Safety-First? It is called the Salvo Health-Safety-First Manual of Health and Life and it tells you how to keep well. Ask for it at our stores.

This is health bulletin number 1, issued to promote the Health-Safety-First movement. SIDNEY FRANCIS HOME FROM QUEST OF THE UNUSUAL

St. Louisan Started Out as "Hobo," Returns as Life Insurance Agent.

Sidney Francis, 27 years old, one of the six sons of former Gov. David R. Francis, has returned to St. Louis after an absence of nearly four years, the early part of which was spent in a tramp journey which was meant to encircle the world, but which ended at Honolulu.

The young man and his wife of a year, who was formerly Miss Julia Holmes of Pasadena, Cal., and who is the daughter of John R. Holmes, a former St. Louisan, are living at the Francis home, 4421 Maryland avenue. He is working as a life insurance agent, the business in which he engaged during the greater part of his absence from home.

In the first part of his "hobo" journey, which was in California, Francis had three companions. Two of these were Eastern college youth, Hayward Brown and A. R. Dupont of New York. A third, who made the ocean journey with him, was George Little, son of William H. Little of 6310 Waterman avenue, president of a printing firm.

Rode the Blind Baggage.
He and Little left St. Louis, Jan. 31, 1912. They rode first-class to Los Angeles and there started to "beat" their way. Their plan was to sail from San Francisco on a sailing vessel, visiting the South Sea Islands and Oriental ports, then to pass through the Suez Canal and tour Europe, whence they would return to New York. In Los Angeles they fell in with the two New York youths, who accompanied them to San Francisco.

From Los Angeles to San Francisco (400 miles) the young men rode the blind baggage, the "rode" beneath the cars, and the "dummies," or empty freight cars. As passengers on the "blind," they rode for a time on the fastest of the Pacific Coast trains, and the cold and the exposure nearly froze them. At several places they were pursued by policemen or railroad watchmen, and at Santa Barbara the authorities furnished them temporary lodging.

In San Francisco Francis and Little got berths as common sailors on the Edward Bewall, a square-rigged four-masted, carrying ballast to Honolulu, to return with a cargo of sugar.

A Wild Night at Sea.
They had to sleep in the fo'castle, and work on deck and in the rigging like the other sailors. Nineteen days out, they struck a white squall—a big wind with no rain—and all hands were called on deck in the middle of the night.

During this voyage, one of the sailors was hurt by the breaking of a hoisting chain, which fractured his jaw and both his thumbs. The captain set the fractures, as most captains have a knack of doing, and the job fell somewhat short of what a surgeon would have done. The result was that the man's thumbs were stiff and useless. He sued the owner of the ship for $30,000, on arrival in Honolulu, and Little, who was a lawyer, handled the case for him. Before it came to trial, Little had to go home. He had suffered from insomnia and nervousness on the voyage.

That broke up Francis' plan for a journey around the world, and he remained in Honolulu a year and a half, selling life insurance. Then he returned to California, and worked in the same line of business. When a Post-Dispatch reporter saw him today, he declined to be interviewed about his adventures.

SENSATIONAL WIND-UP SALE OF 1915

MEN'S AND BOYS' FINE CLOTHES ALMOST 1/2 PRICE

NOW COMES a record-smashing finish for a banner year. The phenomenal success of our sale of M. E. Croak & Co.'s bankrupt stock, which has just been concluded, left our tables, racks and cabinets clear at the end of November, a condition that never before existed. As a result we were in a position to buy brand-new stocks at great cash discounts. A rush trip to New York brought startling purchases. We bought for cash the entire men's, young men's and boys' clothing stock of J. Wener & Co., 708 Broadway, New York City, retiring from business. This big coup, combined with five other great cash purchases, has filled our store with monster assortments of newest clothes—all offered in this "Sensational Wind-Up Sale of 1915" at almost one-half price. Set aside a time—come here tomorrow and share in the benefits of this incomparable event.

"I have an exclusive agreement for twenty-five years with the Victor to make records of my voice. The records made by the Victor process are far superior—in quality of tone, natural reproduction, and in every detail—to those made by any other process in the world."

Enrico Caruso

"I have found Victor Records really wonderful reproductions of my singing."

Nellie Melba

"I am delighted to contribute a word of appreciation in favor of the Victor, and congratulate myself that my selections are brought before the public in so admirable a manner, by means of its wonderful merit."

Emma Calvé

"The Victor today is the most relentless, but the most just critic, as it reproduces absolutely what the artist has done."

Gustav Mahler

"I would like to express my delight at renewing my contract with the Victor Talking Machine Company for ten years more."

"During my extensive travels I have had such a vivid illustration of the great work you are doing for the world that it is with the deepest feeling that I say I'm proud to be a part of such a great work, and that I may long enjoy the privilege is the earnest wish of

Anna Gluck

"I believe that the process by which the Victor Records are made is the most perfect of all methods of voice reproduction. I have made records exclusively for the Victor since February 1910 and my present contract does not expire until February 1938."

John McCormack

"The reproductions of the Victor Records are wonderful. It is my great desire now to seal up and preserve a complete set of my Victor Records for my children."

Homer

"I have recently listened to the Victor Records of my violin playing and have more than ever been impressed by the marvelous faithfulness with which they reproduce, or rather recreate the minutest details of phrasing and every shade of tone-color, in short, the personality of the player."

"Truly, Victor Records are the last word of mechanical reproduction and quite justly does the civilized world all over the globe today look upon them as an inexhaustible source of pleasure and education."

Fritz Kreisler

"Every true artist consistently endeavors to improve tone production. The quality of my voice in my Victor Records is so perfectly reproduced that when I study I use them as a standard for comparison."

John Gadsby

The greatest endorsement ever given any musical instrument

The mere fact that the world's greatest artists—universally acknowledged the greatest, and commanding the highest salaries—make records exclusively for the Victor is the most conclusive endorsement of

Victor Supremacy

These famous artists know that the Victor carries to the uttermost corners of the world their voices and art true to the very life, with all the beauty of shading and individuality of expression which characterize their every rendition.

They know that the Victor and Victrola are the only instruments that bring out their voices and art with absolute fidelity—that bring out of the Victor Record every part of every selection just as sweet and natural as when they sing or play on the operatic or concert stage.

The proof is in the hearing. Get an actual demonstration of Victrola supremacy today.

Victrolas $15 to $400. Victors $10 to $100.

"The improvement in Victor recording during the past years has been so great that a singer is compelled to give the matter of making Victor Records the most serious and conscientious consideration."

Scott

"The reproductions of the selections I sang for Victor Records are wonderfully lifelike—they reproduce the natural quality of the human voice."

LAYMEN CONFER ON MISSIONS IN NINE CHURCHES

Only 2 Cents Out of Every 36
Cents Contributed to Cause Goes Abroad, Speaker Says.

Denominational conferences, in connection with the St. Louis convention of the national missionary campaign, conducted by the Laymen's Missionary Movement, were held this afternoon in the Third Baptist Church, the headquarters of the convention, and in eight other churches, most of them within walking distance.

Addresses at this morning's meetings were on "Enlisting and Training the Church," by Dr. John M. Moore; "Mohammedanism," by the Rev. Neal McClanahan, and "Needs and Opportunities in the Home Field," by the Rev. H. F. Swartz. Tonight's meeting, at the Third Baptist Church, will be given to reports and addresses. The closing session will be held Sunday afternoon.

Bishop Oldham to Speak.
Bishop William F. Oldham, secretary of the Methodist Foreign Mission Board, who did not arrive in time for his appointments at the convention yesterday, will speak tonight and Sunday afternoon. His theme tonight is "The Changing Orient."

Ministers who are attending the meeting held a luncheon at the Warwick Hotel today to discuss the minister's task of money raising, in connection with missions.

In a discussion which followed Dr. Moore's address, J. Campbell White, president of Wooster College and general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, said that, of an average per capita contribution of 36 cents to religious purposes, only 2 cents goes out of the country.

J. S. Michels, one of the organizers of the laymen's movement, said follow-up meetings, or echo meetings, should be held after the present meetings, and that an every-member canvass should be made, to obtain financial support from all church communicants.

Women Hold a Rally.
Women, who are not considered "laymen," and hence are not admitted to the main floor of the convention, held a missionary rally yesterday in Union Methodist Church, and were addressed by Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery, president of the National Baptist Women's Board of Foreign Missions. She said ignorance, among church members, as to the spread of Christianity in the world, is as unpardonable as ignorance, in a warring country, as to the victories of its army.

At the main session of laymen last night, Dr. James P. McNaughton, from Turkey, talked on terrorism in that country. In discussions as to the amount which the supporters of missions should give, Dr. W. G. Tysser, a member of the Third Baptist Church, was mentioned as one who gives practically all his income, above living expenses, to religious work. Other similar instances were cited.

FEEDS 3 HORSES FOR YEAR, THEN LOSES ATTACHMENT SUIT

Alton Man Must Return Animals and Pay Bills of $500, Including Court Costs.

Amos Jones, an Alton real estate dealer, after feeding three of Mrs. Lottie Veeck's horses for a year, lost an attachment suit in the Appellate Court yesterday and will be required to stand good for court costs amounting to about $500, including the expense of feeding the horses.

Jones a year ago contracted to sell certain property for Mrs. Veeck. After selling part of the property he brought suit for his commissions and attached the three horses.

Since then the horses have been in an Alton livery barn. Jones lost in the lower court and appealed. His appeal bond included the cost of feeding the horses. The court rules that Mrs. Veeck is to retain possession of the horses and Jones must pay the livery stable bill.

NEGRESS ARRESTED FOLLOWING DEATH OF GLASS WORKER

Crystal City Man Found Dead on Railroad Tracks—With Back of Head Crushed.

In connection with the investigation of the death of Winfield Villar, 32 years old, a glass worker at Crystal City, Mo., believed to have been murdered Tuesday night, the St.
Louis police yesterday arrested Margaret Moore, 25 years old, a negress, at 2334A Walnut street at the request of Jefferson City authorities.
Villar was found dead in the railroad yards in Crystal City Wednesday morning. The back of his skull was crushed. It was learned that Tuesday night a negress, answering the Moore woman's description had been seen walking with him on the railroad tracks. Margaret came to St. Louis on an early train Wednesday. She denies knowledge of the killing.

EXPRESS MEN CLING 7 MILES TO STEP OF BLAZING CAR

Both Men Burned by Fire Started on Moving Train Supposedly by Films.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Dec. 2.—C. H.
Bronson, express messenger, and his helper, F. W. Hoss, both of Chicago, rode the seven miles between Marion and Faralia early yesterday clinging to the iron step of a blazing Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul car with the flames being wafted into their faces from the rush train. Both suffered severe burns and were sent to a hospital.
The fire, which is supposed to have originated in a pile of moving picture films, destroyed the car and its contents, the loss being estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000. One thousand dollars in silver was recovered from the ruins, a melted mass. Thirty thousand dollars in currency in a safe was intact.

BAIRD'S MILL TAX OPINION TO MAYOR OF NO VALUE NOW

Former City Counsellor Held That Law Was Retroactive, Therefore Invalid.

Mayor Kiel, City Counsellor Dues and First Assistant City Counsellor Young held a conference this morning following the publication of a letter written last year and a half ago by William E.
Baird, then City Counsellor, and now associated with Henry S. Priest, counsel for the United Railways, who informally gave his opinion to the Mayor that the mill tax ordinance was invalid.

The principal point in Baird's letter is that, although the ordinance was not
passed and approved until March, 1903,
it provided that it should become effective Jan. 1, 1903, or nearly three months before its passage.

The letter first was published yesterday in the current issue of American Justice, a monthly publication which announces itself to be "an advocate of industrial peace and freedom," but which more particularly devoted to opposition to municipal ownership of public utilities.

After the conference, Mayor Kiel said that he had thought that if there was any real danger of the city losing the mill tax suit, he would be in favor of compromising it, but he said he was convinced after talking with the City Counsellor that there was no danger. He expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied to let the city's legal department fight the case out in the courts.

Remember Baird's Letter.
Assistant City Counsellor Young said
this morning that he clearly remembered discussing with Baird the question about the date the ordinance became effective, and that at that time Baird "laughed at it," and said that the United Railways would hardly be so foolish as to raise such a point seriously.

Baird, since writing the letter, has returned from the City Counsellor's office and is now connected with the law firm of Boyle & Priest, attorneys for the United Railways, which for 12 years has waged a fight in the courts against the payment of the tax, which was 1 mill for each passenger carried, and amounts in the aggregate at this time to about $250,000.

After the date on which the opinion was said to have been delivered, Baird, as counsel for the city, fought the case for the city in the Supreme Court, and won a decision upholding the ordinance which he had previously said was invalid.

Baird in his letter, expresses the opinion that the mill tax ordinance was invalid, and indirectly advocated a compromise, saying "what is really needed is an extended service and not the exaction of taxes of doubtful legality."

The first point raised by Baird was that although the ordinance was not
passed and approved until March, 1903, it provided that it should become effective Jan. 1, 1903, or about three months before its passage.

This, he said, made it void on its face.
He said it probably was intended to make it effective Jan. 1, 1904, but as it did not fix that date the courts would have no power to change it.

The failure of attorneys for the United Railways to urge before the Supreme Court of the United States that the city had no charter power to levy the tax, Baird says, probably bars the company from setting up that contention after the Supreme Court had decided the case, but Baird said, "The position which the city has been compelled to take, is highly technical and hardly fair."

Baird also expressed the opinion that the mill tax resulted in double taxation of the United Railways.

No Record of Opinion.
City Counsellor Dues said this morning to a Post-Dispatch reporter that there was no record of the opinion having been rendered from the City Counsellor's office.

"If this opinion was given," he said,
"certainly a record of it should have been kept. The law requires that the request for an opinion from the City Counsellor and the opinion shall be kept on file in the City Counsellor's office for the information of the public."

"I have examined the files and there is no copy of it here. There is none in the Mayor's office."

"The point raised by Baird that the date makes the ordinance invalid on its face is perfectly foolish. The United Railways has had its day in court and this point cannot now be raised."

"The questions that present themselves to any mind are, who caused this 'previously unheard of' opinion to be printed now, and why?"

"This case is now in the hands of the legal department of the city, and we will handle it. I wish there would be no more talk of compromise of this litigation, and that we be permitted to go ahead with it. The United Railways has lost all along the line, and I can't see that it has a chance now."

"Thomas Post Young, First Assistant City Counsellor, has handled the mill tax case for several years. He tells me that this date question was seen some time ago, but that the city lawyers who were handling the matter considered it so foolish that they paid no attention to it."

"It is not to be supposed that the astute lawyers for the United Railways would have overlooked such a point as this if there had been anything in it.
They never had the nerve to present such a trivial matter to the attention of a court."

"Another thing: If there were the views of Mr. Baird in 1913, why did he,

a sworn officer of the court, tell the Supreme Court differently?"

William F. Woerner, who as City Counsellor, drew the mill tax ordinance, told a Post-Dispatch reporter that it was drawn in 1902 with the expectation that it would be passed and would become effective Jan. 1, 1903. He said it was not passed until 1903 and that members of the Municipal Assembly failed to change the date when it should become effective.

He said that in 1903 prior to the passage of the ordinance the United Railways paid its tax of $25 a car for the entire year, and that consequently the ordinance did not become effective as to it until Jan. 1, 1904.

BACKACHE—NATURE'S WARNING!

Usually Indicates Presence of Uric Acid. New Discovery Quickly
Eliminates Poisonous Waste. Then Pains Disappear.

Authorities are agreed that the kidneys must be kept strong and active if health and life are to be maintained. It is their function to filter the impurities from the blood.
When for any reason they fail to properly perform this work, the poisonous waste is forced back into the blood and carried through the system. Tiny acid crystals are deposited in the joints and muscles where they don't belong and where their presence is soon felt. The blood goes sluggish and poignant pains and aches begin to about warnings that something is wrong.

If you have a lame, aching back, stiff joints or muscles, have severe headaches or suffer with sudden shooting rheumatic twinges, prompt corrective measures should be taken at once or serious complications with untold agony and misery are likely to quickly follow. But don't resort to external applications like liniments and plasters. While they may give temporary relief, by directly irritating the produce, you have got to remove the cause before anything like permanent benefit can be expected.

In cases of this kind a new treatment that has already shown remarkable results in a large number of cases is being widely used. It is called Solvax. Solvax is a powerful dissolving agent that goes right to the seat of the trouble, working its way into every fold and crevice of the filtering membranes where it dissolves the uric acid crystals and clogging waste that are preventing the kidneys from performing the work nature intended.

When Solvax starts work on the kidneys a complete change is noticed almost at once. Backaches and other painful symptoms disappear. The sluggish blood thoroughly cleansed of its load of poisonous waste starts pumping vigorously through the system and the whole being brightens up as if by magic.

The kidneys, freed of all clogging impurities, can now go to work with a vim.

If you suffer from any form of kidney complaint, go at once to Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., or any other reliable druggist, and get a new packet of Solvax and see the difference. You are cheating yourself out of a big slice of life if you don't use Solvax at once. It is a safe, inexpensive treatment and always sold satisfaction guaranteed or money cheerfully refunded.—ADV.

Some New Recipes

Vegetable Pudding—One cup of grated carrots, grate fine through a cheeper; 1 cup potato, grate in the same way; 1 cup of chopped raisins; 1 cup of sugar; 1 cup of flour. Mix all together, add 1 teaspoon of soda, teaspoon of cloves, cinnamon, nutmeg, butter size of egg. Mix all together, put in a buttered dish, steam three hours and serve with whipped cream sauce.

Chicken With Spaghetti—Boil in salted water half a pound of spaghetti and drain. Spread on a platter that may be put in the oven without damage. Spread over the spaghetti a layer of highly seasoned tomato sauce. Shred the cooked chicken meat into little strips and lay on the tomato; you will need the meat of a small chicken for a half pound of spaghetti. Cut four stalks of celery fine and season with onion salt, paprika and a dash of mace. Cook this brown in a little pork fat and spread over the chicken. Put in the oven to get very hot.

Cranberry Pudding for Four—Cream 1 cup sugar with 3 teaspoons of flour sifted with 2 teaspoons cream tartar and 1/2 soda; add 1 1/2 cups cranberries and bake half hour in moderate oven. Serve with any kind of sauce.

The New Dispensation

London in a Fog—November

By Rudyard Kipling.

PART ONE.

THINGS have happened—but that is neither here nor there. What I urgently require is a servant—a nice, fat Mussulman khitmatgar, who is not above doing bear's work on occasion. Such a man I would go down to Southampton or Tilbury to meet, would usher tenderly into a first-class carriage (I always go third myself) and wrap in the warmest of flannel. He should be "Jenab," and I would be "O

Turn." When he died, as he assured would in this weather, I would bury him in my best back garden and write mortuary verses for publication in the Koh-

i-Nur, or whatever vernacular paper he might read. I want, in short, a servant;

and this is why I am writing to you.

The English who, by the way, are unmitigated barbarians, maintain cotton print housemaids to do work which is the manifest portion of a man. Besides which, no properly constructed person needs to see a woman waiting upon his needs. Filling coal-scuttles

(these are very mysterious beasts) and tidying rooms. The young homeward

Englishman does not object, and one of the most tantalizing sights in the world is that of the young man of the house

the son newly introduced to shaving-

water and great on the subject of maintaining authority—it is tantalizing, I say, to see this young cub hectoring a miserable little slavey not having lighted a fire put his slippers in their proper place. The next time a big, bold man from the frontier comes home I shall hire him to kick a few young gentlemen of my acquaintance all round

their own drawing rooms while I lecture on the theory that the sort of thing accounts for the perceptible lack of civility in the modern Englishman. Now if you or I or anybody else raved over and lectured at Kadir Baksh, or Ram

Singh, or Jagesa on the necessity of obedience and the beauty of reverence, our noble selves, our men would laugh

or if the lecture struck them as too long-winded would ask us if our lives were cut of order and recommend dawl.

The housemaid would stand with her eyes on the young man and the ordering of my paltry garments, and I verily believed, loved me not altogether for the sake of lucer. He said he would come with me to Belait because, "though the salib says he will never return to India, yet I know, and all the other nauker log know, that return is his fate."

BEING a fool, I left Kadir Baksh

behind, and now I am alone with housemaids, who will under no circumstances sleep on the mat outside the door. Even as I write, one of these persons is cleaning up my room. Kadir

Baksh would have done his work without noise. She stamps and scuffles;

and, what is much worse, snuffles hor-ribly. Kadir Baksh would have saluted me cheerfully and began some sort of a yarn of the "It hath reached me, O Auspicious King!" order, and perhaps we should have debated over the worthles-

ness of Durrani, the saib, or the chances of a little cold-weather expedition, or the wisdom of retaining a fresh chaprassi—

some intimate friend of Kadir Baksh.

But now I have no horses and no chaprassi, and this smutty-faced girl glares

at me across the room as though she expected I was going to eat her.

"She must have a soul of her own—a life of her own—and perhaps a few amusements. I can't get at these things.

She says, "Ho, yus," and "Ho, no,"

and if I have heard her chattering to the lift-boy on the stairs I should think that her education stopped at these two phrases. Now, I knew all about Kadir

Baksh, his hopes and his savings—his experiences in the past, and the health of the little ones. He was a man—a human man remarkably like myself, and he knew that as well as I. A housemaid is of course not a man, but she might at least be a woman. My wanderings about this amazing heathen city have brought me into contact with very many English men and women who seem to be eaten up with the fear of letting their servants get "above their position," or "presume," or do something which would shake the foundations of the four-mile cab radius. They seem to carry on a sort of cat-and-mouse war

when the husband is at office and they nothing much to do. Later, at places where their friends assemble, they recount the campaign, and the other woman purr approvingly and say, "You did quite right, my dear. It is evident that she forgets her place."

And gives him a great idea of the dignity that has to be bolstered and buttressed, eight hours of the day,

against the incendiary attacks of an in-18-pound including-beer-money sleeping insect in the heart of a good many deep-bosomed matron—a "nose

back" to the times when we trafficked

in black ivory. At tea tables and places where they eat muffins it is called dipping. Now, you—Kadir Baksh or my Kadir Baksh, who in a downtrodden and oppressed heathen (the young gentlemen

who bullyrag white women assure me that we are in the habit of kicking our dependents and beating them with umbrellas daily), would ask for his chits,

and probably say something like "I am he drifted out of the compound

gate, if you nagged or worried his noble self. He does not know much about the meaner forms of dignity, but he is entirely sound on the subject of immunity and the fact of his cracking an ass

and Oriental feet with you in the privacy of your dressing room, or seeing you at your incoherent worst when you have an attack of fever, does not in the least affect his general department in public, where he knows that the honor of his shah is his own honor, and does a new kumbarud on the strength of it.

I have tried to deal with these housemaids in every possible way. To sing

a "blessed 'Arnie'" or "Mary" or "Jase"

at a girl whose only fault is that she is a heavy-handed incompetent, strikes me as rather an insult, seeing that the

Why and How We Take Cold

OLD, we know nowadays, to be caused by a certain germ, and when you develop a cold it means that certain germs have begun to grow (by dividing themselves) in your throat or nose, and that they produce a poison which is at once absorbed into your blood, and it is that which gives you that miserable feeling that having a cold can produce.

There are some people we know who never seem to have colds. They are the people who may be in the habit of strengthening their resistance by taking a cold bath every day and by keeping much out of doors. But we know other people (those who keep much in doors—in hot rooms—and who take but little out-of-door exercise) who seem to take colds very easily. In fact, some persons seem to have a cold all winter. The way in which such people live proves that they have little power of resistance, and one's resistance is the real thing which decides whether a cold will develop or not. A cold, we must remember, is a communicable disease. One member of a family "catches cold" and brings the germ home, and then a cold develops in several other members of the same family.

Sneezing and coughing in such places as the school or the office without first guarding the mouth and nose with a handkerchief are perhaps the most fruitful sources of spreading infection, for in sneezing and coughing particles and droplets of the secretion of the throat, mouth and nose are often forced out like a veritable spray and may be carried several feet. When these particles lodge, as they are most apt to do, on the mucous membrane of other throats, noses and mouths, they start the same disease again, if they chance to contain the germ of infection.

To avoid colds spreading through a family, when some member is sneezing or coughing remind him and himself that he means and cough into a handkerchief, as this will prevent the spray of germs from being spread about.

Such handkerchiefs should be kept by themselves and boiled for 15 minutes before being put with other clothing for the laundry.

All persons suffering from a cold should try to keep away from places where food is prepared for the family, and eating utensils used by such member (who is surely a carrier) should be washed separately.

Persons with cold should never be permitted to kiss a baby. In truth, they should never come near the baby, for colds often are fatal to infants.

CATARRH QUICKLY BANISHED
MONEY BACK IF THIS FAILS

Medicated Air Destroys Catarrh Germs and Stops Catarrh. Breaks Up Hardest Cold in a Few Minutes.

Of all the diseases caused by germs, catarrh is one of the most persistent and loathsome. Catarrh can be cured, but it can only be cured by destroying the germs.

Breathe Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) and stop catarrh by killing the germs. The Hyomel method is the only sensible method, because you breathe this highly antiseptic and germ-killing air directly over the entire membrane that is infested with catarrh germs.

Hyomel will end catarrh! There may be some complicated cases where it will fail, but the chances are ten to one in its favor, and the sufferer from catarrh takes no risk, because Hyomel is a guaranteed remedy, and if it doesn't benefit Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. is authorized to refund the purchase price. A complete outfit, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs but little, and with this protecting guarantee behind your purchase there is absolutely no reason why every sufferer of catarrh should not give it a fair trial.

cottage of John Karuath, 4717 Hanner street, at 3 o'clock this morning. The family escaped in their night clothes. The damage was estimated at $200.

SPLINTER IN THUMB
CAUSES TETANUS
AND DEATH OF MAN

Paul Miller Is Seventh Person to Die Recently From Minor Injuries.

A splinter, which was run into the right thumb, under the nail, about two weeks ago, caused the death at the city hospital this morning of Paul Miller, 35 years old. This was the seventh death in St. Louis, since July 28, from tetanus developing from apparently trivial wounds.

Miller, at the time, removed part of the splinter and bathed the wound in peroxide. Yesterday morning his jaws and neck stiffened. He went to the hospital, where physicians removed the remaining portion of the splinter and administered antitetanic serum. In the evening Miller went into convulsions, and finally choked to death. His address was given at the hospital at 4400 South Main street. There is no such number.

The current issue of the Health Department Bulletin, issued yesterday, contained the record of eight recent tetanus cases growing out of trivial causes, in which six patients died.

One of them was of an elderly man who developed tetanus six days after injuring his index finger while cutting a piece of wood. He died on the seventh day. A boy 17 years old died from a nail wound in the foot; a boy 3 years old died from a wound in the foot; a laborer, 50 years old, died after injuring his hand in a machine; a boy, 3 years old, fell from a fence, injuring his arm, and the wound later became tetanus affected, causing death; a man, 55, fell from a ladder, lacerating his left arm, and later causing death.

Two Persons Recover.

A laborer, who ran a nail into his foot, and a girl, who cut her finger with a rusty knife, recovered after vigorous treatment with anti-tetanic serum.

Assistant Health Commissioner Jordan said the cases were printed in the bulletin to illustrate the development of tetanus in wounds which would be ordinarily considered insignificant. He said the only safe way to prevent tetanus was to have tetanus antitoxin injected before tetanus had a chance to develop.

Alleged Night Rider Arrested.

CAIRO, Ill., Dec. 3.—Walter Willoughby, alleged leader of night riders in New Madrid County, Mo., was arrested last night. He has been employed by a farmer near the Kentucky shore of the Ohio River opposite Cairo. He made no statement. He was taken back to New Madrid this morning.

ARKANSAS MOB TAKE NEGRO FROM JAIL, HANG HIM TO POLE

Man Lynched Killed Son of County Assessor—Was Tried Twice, but Jury Disagreed.
FORREST CITY, Ark., Dec. 2.—A mob of more than 100 men yesterday took William Patrick, a negro, from his cell at the county jail and hanged him to a telephone pole. Patrick was charged with having shot and killed John Nichols Jr., son of County Assessor John Nichols. Patrick, a tenant on Nichols' plantation, became engaged in a quarrel with young Nichols over cotton. Patrick had been given two trials and each time the jury disagreed.

RICH WOMAN FOSTER MOTHER OF 2 WAIFS

Mrs. EDWIN DREXEL GODFREY
Aims: Dignity and Honor

The fashion set by Finley J. Shepard and his wife, the former Miss Helen Gould, when they adopted "John Doe No. 104" from a foundling asylum, has been followed by another wealthy New York couple. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Drexel Godfrey, who were childless, have just received the papers by which two homeless little girls become legally their daughters. Brenda Drexel Godfrey, 6½ years old, was a London waif, and Cora Drexel Godfrey, 2½ years old, was a Boston child whose mother died and whose father was too poor to support her properly.

HUNTED AMERICAN YACHT QUARANTINED IN PANAMA

Old Name Said to Have Been Painted Out and Papers Changed; Yellow Fever Among Crew.

PANAMA, Dec. 2.—The American sloop yacht Academy, 27 tons, which had been sought for some time by British and American consular and diplomatic officials, put into Balboa yesterday and is now in quarantine, owing to the fact that recently there were several deaths on board while the vessel was in the harbor of Buena Ventura, Colombia.

The sailors tell of much hardship owing to yellow fever on board and lack of success in a mining venture in Chile. It is said the vessel probably will be held here.

The Academy sailed from San Francisco June 21 in ballast for Callao, Peru. She had a crew of nine men on board. A dispatch from Bogota, Colombia, Oct. 18, said an American yacht bound from San Francisco, with the name "Academy" painted over the name "Ethel," carrying an unusually large crew, was being detained near Buena Ventura by the Colombian authorities, under suspicious circumstances. Her papers were declared to be irregular, the German name of the master being alleged to have been erased from them and an American name substituted.

Open Seventh Drug Store.
The Johnson-Enders-Paulay Drug Co. will open their seventh drug store tomorrow at Bernays and Lillian avenues. This is the second store opened by this concern in the past six months, the other new ones being located at Grand and Olive streets.

Officials of the Johnson-Enders-Paulay Drug Co. said that they believed that St. Louis is the best city in the United States for retail business, and for this reason added to their growing chain of stores.

EX-OFFICE BOY PAYS $72,000 FOR N. Y. STOCK EXCHANGE SEAT
W. F. Stafford Makes Fortune in Wall Street in Copper and Metal Stocks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—William F. Stafford, 30 years old, was elected to the New York Stock Exchange yesterday, paying $72,000 for his seat. Stafford, 10 years ago, went to work as an office boy for the New York correspondent of a St. Louis newspaper. Later he became a $6-a-week messenger for a Stock Exchange firm.

Recently Stafford developed into a curb broker.

"It all seems like a dream to me," he said yesterday. "I don't know how the money came in. I only know that I've got it, and I only hope I will save some of it. The most of it came from Kennebec Copper and Midvale Steel."

70 IRISHMEN HAD LITTLE JOKE WITH NEW ZEALAND OFFICIALS

They Said They Were Going to England to Enlist When They Sailed for San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Seventy Irishmen who arrived here yesterday from New Zealand on the steamer Moana, say they had difficulty in getting away.

"Conscription virtually is in force there," said P. T. O'Sullivan, one of them. "Every man who can enlist has to do so. He is driven to it. Employers lay men off or reduce wages."

"When we were aboard the Moana, Government officials came to question us. We all stuck to the story that we were going to England to enlist. That was just our little Irish joke."

Head of Seminary Killed.
BURLINGAME, Va., Dec. 2.—Graham Campbell, 60 years old, for 23 years president of the Ringdale Seminary, an institution for colored girls here, was instantly killed last night when a lighted lamp which he carried in an attempt to repair a break in the acetylene gas plant, exploded. One negro girl also was killed.

PORTUGAL 'MORALLY' FOR ALLIES

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Sympathy for the allies was expressed in a declaration of the new Portuguese Cabinet, which appeared before Parliament yesterday.

The ministry declared it would abstain from all party politics and adhere strictly to a national policy, adding: "The Government will make strong efforts to execute the laws passed by Parliament upon the subject of the attitude of Portugal in the present war, safeguarding thus the dignity and interests of the nation, lending co-operation to right and justice defended by England and her allies whom the Portuguese people assured of their full moral sympathy at the beginning of the war and several times since then."

guarding thus the dignity and interests of the nation, lending co-operation to right and justice defended by England and her allies whom the Portuguese people assured of their full moral sympathy at the beginning of the war and several times since then."

TWO PASSENGER TRAINS BUMPED
IN YARDS HERE

B. & O. Engine Sideswiped
Freight Cars—Iron Mountain
Splits a Switch.

An outbound Baltimore & Ohio fast mail, carrying passengers, side-swiped a string of freight cars in the Terminal yards, at Carr street, near the north end of the elevated road, at 1 a. m. today.

Three of the freight cars were demolished and the engine of the mail train was too badly damaged to continue the run. It was necessary to back the train to Union Station and put on another engine. No one was injured.

The engine of south-bound passenger train No. 23 of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway split a switch 100 feet north of the McRee avenue crossing at 3:35 o'clock this morning, causing the engine to jump the track. No one was injured. The train was rerouted over another track.

SOCIETY

M. R. AND MRS. EDWARD C. DAM-
ERON and their daughters, Misses Catherine and Frances,
are coming in from their country home,
"Fallon," for the winter, as is their custom, and have taken the Walter W.
Birge house at 12 Hortense place.

Miss Frances Dameron's marriage to Theron E. Catlin has been set for Jan.
6 and will be one of the fashionable nuptial events of the winter season.

Mrs. Lydia Bevis will give a buffet supper in honor of two of the debutantes,
Misses Grace Gettys and Mary Webb Lambert, on the evening of Dec. 12, at her apartment in the Claridge. The guests will be limited to the buds of the season and the beaux of their set.

The annual ball of the St. Louis Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will be given this evening at the Kirkwood Country Club. The other balls follow, Dec. 27, Feb. 4 and March 3. The clubhouse will be decorated with wild amylax and pompon chrysanthemums, and tiny incandescent lights will be twined among the amylax. The club will have, as its custom, two dance orchestras to play continuous dance music and a special feature.
Orville Preterius, the dancer, will interpret "Sylvan," a bit of Debussy's and a new setting of Mendelssohn's
"Spring Motif." The hostesses for this ball, who will receive the guests are Misses Daniel Sidney Brown, Charles R. Manter, George Lane Edwards, Ward Goodloe, Monroe Horton, Albert E. Price, L. Guy Blalmer, Ingram P. Boyd, Charles J. DeBer-ard, William Lang Ricker and Oliver J. Barwick.

Miss Marguerite Eilmann of 5548 Waterman avenue has as her guest her cousin, Miss Eulalie Ashner of Memphis, Tenn., who is being entertained quite extensively.

The Misses Jeanette and Bertha Ap-pell of 5509 Vernon avenue have had as their guest Miss Ruth Eifenbein of St. Paul, Minn., who was pleasantly entertained while here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Connell of 5309
Bartmer avenue have departed for a fortnight's stay at West Baden Springs, Ind.

A dinner dance will be given at the Elks' Club, 3617 Lindell boulevard, tomorrow evening in honor of John P.
Sullivan of New Orleans, past grand exalted ruler of the order of Elks, who will be the orator at the annual memorial service of the order at Christ Church Cathedral Sunday.

The Sonnenfeld Welfare Association will give its annual dance for the benefit of their employees and their friends
this evening at Westminster Hall.

The bazaar of the Queen's Daughters is now in progress at their home, 2730
Lindell boulevard, and will continue until tomorrow night. It is open all day and evening. Luncheon is served daily.

Miss Marion Dolson of 5551 Von Ver-sen avenue entertained with an informal dance at the Windermere Hotel, Saturday evening. Those present were:
Misses Huldah Becker, Mabel Blumen-stock, Jennie Goldstein, Margaret Flower, Gertrude Johns, Christiana Leititz, Edwina Luckey, Virginia Ricketts, Charlotte Sands, Lucille Segall, Clemmie Thompson, Heiler White, Eunice Woods, Messrs. Edward Bartridge, Francis Bar-ridge, George Clipper, Carl Drechsler, James Forgonston, Howard French, Ray
Johns, Joseph Kutz, Louis Loeb, Robert Maginn, Edmund Marx, Allen Modrette, Fred Payer, Paul Pettasog, Lee Stockwell, Donald Watson, Emanuel Werner.

An original entertainment has been arranged by Mrs. Pauline Jones Burns for the Queen's Daughters, to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2730 Lindell boulevard. The entertainment, which is called "Echoes From the Fashion Show," is a burlesque on the fashion show given at the Coliseum last spring and was recently given by the members of the Old Trails Chapter, Children of the American Revolution. The same children will pose and each one will be introduced by an original reading by Mrs. Burns, who is coaching the children in their parts. Popular airs outable to the characters will be played by Miss Martha Otterly while the models are posing. Mrs. Eugene Fuss and Mrs.

W. B. Kinsley of the Program Committee are actively interested.

Dr. and Mrs. Willard B. Sheple, their son, Reginald, and their daughter, Miss Pelagie, have closed their home, 5545
Berlin avenue, and have taken apartments at the Hamilton Hotel for the winter.

GIRL IN BED HAS PISTOL
DUEL WITH BURGLAR OUTSIDE

She Fired Three Shots at Mashed Man and He Fired One, Then Escaped.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 2.—While in bed
at her home, Miss Lee Carter had a pistol duel with a burglar.

There were wedding presents in the house for the marriage of Miss Carter's sister, Miss Carter was awakened about 3 o'clock. She saw a masked man outside her window, she awakened a girl friend asleep beside her, and with a pistol fired at the burglar. The man appeared to fall. His head came up again in a few minutes. The girl fired again, and this time the burglar also fired. His shot went wild and a third shot was fired at him by the girl. The man did not fire any more, but escaped.

POPE WANTED MERCIER'S AID

Desired Belgian Cardinal's Help Forming New Congregation.
ROME, Dec. 2.—The Observator Romano, the official organ of the Vatican, says that Cardinal Mercier, Primate of Belgium, was called to Rome by Pope Benedict, who desired him to participate in the formation of the new congregation, which will have jurisdiction over all seminaries and ecclesiastical studies throughout the world. This congregation has now been formed and been entrusted to Cardinal Siletti, who has been appointed by Pope Benedict its prefect.

WAR STAMP CRAZE PUTS HIGH PRICES ON ARMY ISSUES

French Philatelists Busy Collecting Labels of All Sorts to Satisfy Demand.

MANY NEW DESIGNS

Letters From Front Prized
Markings—Each Company Has Own Kind.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—The war is proving a boon to philatelists. Stamps are doing practically as well as the famous "war supplies." The local "Stamp Bourse" is doing a record business, while the financial Bourse is stagnating.

There is quite a boom, not only for stamps, but for any kind of labels, postal or telephonic. Anything obliterated by French, German, British or other belligerents finds a ready and good market so long as it indicates prepayment or freedom from charge or payment due.

There is a constant arrival of new issues.

The neutrals as well as the belligerents have issued on the occasion of the war all kinds of new engravings, which stamp merchants and dealers are eagerly buying up.

Postman's Blunder Adds to Value.
The rarest and most-sought-for specimens are those marked with some unwelcome obliteration.

France has granted full franking privilege for all correspondence to and from the front.

One 10-centime stamp which recently fetched a high price bore witness to the stupidity of some postmen; a superfluous ornament on a letter for the front bears a magnificent "F. M." (military frank) in handwriting.

The letters written from the front furnish some very curious specimens, as the company commanders who frank their men's correspondence do not always use rubber stamps, but as often styles and pencils of very different colors. A complete collection for the whole of the French army becomes a stupendous undertaking.

Red Cross stamps are plentiful. In France there are two issues of these to be found, and all the French colonies have followed suit, that of the Somaliland Coast Territory singling itself out by reason of the fineness of its engraving.

The Belgians have been compelled by unfortunate events to make numerous issues following the tribulations of their Government.

At Antwerp they made two issues; one with the effigy of King Albert, the other with that of the Monument of Defense. These were used on French soil subsequently, with the Harve obliteration and have become very rare and expensive.

A prized variety is the Belgian stamp as used by the Germans; it bears in Gothic characters the word "Belgien," and in French the price.

Few New British Stamps.
The British have neither changed nor added to their pre-existing stamps, except where they have captured some German colony, as in East and West Africa and Samoa. There is, however, a special series of stamps for the Indian Expeditionary Corps fighting in France, bearing the effigy of George V., Emperor of India, and overlaid with J. E. F. Indian Expeditionary Force.

The Italian army, which in peace time has a special stamp for every one of its 40 regiments, has since the war issued one for each of its services, making 12 differently colored stamps.

As in Belgium, the Germans employ in France and in Poland their own stamps, across which is inscribed in Gothic characters "Frankreich" or "Russische-Feland."

The most valued of all German stamps, however, are the microscopic German stamps sold to the French, Russian or British prisoners. These are black, green, red or blue, according to their price, 2, 5, 10 or 20 pfennigs, and show a Prussian eagle surmounted by the mention "XI. Armee Corps."

GOES TO BED POOR; RISES
NEXT DAY WORTH $500,000

Grand Rapids Farm, Hand Becomes a Rich Man Over Night by Inheritance.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Dec. 2.—Robert Hoover, 50 years old, was a farm hand when he went to bed. Next morning, when he awoke, he was heir to a $500,000 estate left in his name by his mother, whom he had not seen for 30 years, had died and left the fortune.

Hoover, who now lives at Harrietta, Mich., has been a wanderer most of his life since he ran away from home as a boy. He did go back after a few years to find his father dead and his mother married again, but he did not like his stepfather and departed again. Since then he has labored and tramped and begged. Twice he tried to settle down by marrying. The first time his wife died and the second bride was not content, a divorce following after a few months.

His mother's second husband, who was wealthy, died a few years ago. The mother in last years tried in vain to find her son and before she died she willed all her property to him. Attorneys have just found Hoover and notified him that he will have to fight a will contest suit filed by two brothers of his stepfather.

SOLDIER'S LETTER DESTROYED BECAUSE OF GREEN ENVELOPE

English Mother Writes to London Newspaper of the Censorship Red Tape.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The heartlessness of the red-tape system is shown in a letter written by a mother to one of the London papers. She received instead of a letter from her soldier son, in the trenches, the following cypewritten notice from the military censor: "Letter destroyed. This pattern of envelope is obsolete and its use is forbidden." Later it was decided that the green envelopes served out to the soldiers in France should not be used, possibly because they had fallen into the hands of spies. But the act of the censor fell hard on the mother, who writes: "My son was sent out to France in the first week of February, and has had no leave. He came out of hospital on Oct. 7, where he had been a month (during which time not one of his letters was forwarded, each one coming back to me, and was sent straight up to the front line again. "We have heard nothing about him since Oct. 11, so our anxiety can be understood."

BEATEN BY THREE SERENADERS

Singer and Wife Say They Were Attacked by Them.

William B. Jones, a singer, 35 years old, of 311 North Ewing avenue, and his wife, Mrs. Viola Jones, 28, went to the central dispensary at 1 o'clock this morning to have scalp wounds dress. They told the police that a woman and three men entered their room about 2:30 a. m. and began singing. When they ordered the trio out, they said, the men began beating them. The police arrested Miss Anna Field, 22 years old, of 4327 Ewing avenue, and ordered the arrest of two men.

MAMMA! GIVE A "CASCARET" QUICK, LOOK AT TONGUE!

Relieve little stomach, liver and bowels with candy cathartic.

Laziness, peevish, feverish, drooping. Little stomach sick, breath sour and tongue coated. Mamma, you must act now or your little one will be real sick soon. Get a 10-cent box of Cascarets at the drug store, give a whole Cascaret any time. Cascarets are harmless and children love this candy cathartic which stimulates the little liver, cleans the bowels and sweetens the poor, sick stomach in a few hours. Mothers know that Cascarets act fast and thoroughly and that they cure the little folks right up. Cascarets is best laxative for men, women and children. They never gripe or sicken.—ADV.

You Need One of These Hart Schaffner & Marx Overcoats

Here Is One OF THE Varsity Six Hundred Variations

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

WHICH one will you have? They represent two types of overcoats that are universally fashionable and are specially adapted to the uses of the men listed below. Are you in the "Chesterfield" or "Varsity Six Hundred" class?

Here's the most famous overcoat style ever designed for young men and men young in spirit. It is here in a number of clever variations; double-breasted models; single-breasted button through and fly front designs.

A favorite with young men in college and business, and men who think they are young; for, after all, youth is only a state of mind. Have us show you.

The Chesterfield (At the Right)

America's standby in overcoats; always good looking; always correct. Designed for conservative men, young or old; not quite so lively as Varsity Six Hundred, but with plenty of style and dignity, etc.

If you're an outdoor man, we have specially designed overcoats for you; ulsterettes and greatcoats, big and warm.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"

That's Why St. Louis Wants The National Conventions.

Listen! If you are as sad and solemn as a weeping willow tree full of owls, you'll simply have to laugh for three hours if you see the Cohan-Harris gloom destroyer.

"It Pays to Advertise"

Olympic Theater, Week of December 5th

And you will be helping to pay the preliminary expenses of the Convention campaign at the same time. Ask any one who saw "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE" during its long New York and Chicago engagements!

SUNDAY—Grand-Leader Night.
MONDAY—Ad Club and Famous-Barr Co. Night.
TUESDAY—Business Men's League and Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Night.
WEDNESDAY—MATTIN—Women's Council Day.
WEDNESDAY—Merchants' Exchange and Lindell Store Night.
THURSDAY—Sales Managers Bureau, Nuegents and Shapleigh Hardware Co. Night.

And Others to Be Announced Later.

Sold by Dealers in All Localities.

It's too cool to be without heat and too warm to start the furnace. These heaters are convenient and economical. They do not cost as much to operate as it will to start your furnace.

With one of these you have as much heat as you want, when you want it, and where you want it.

MEN AND WOMEN

Women as well as men are made up of atoms and molecules. The great body of knowledge that is being accumulated in the laboratory of the modern scientist is being made available to the public in a series of lectures by Dr. J. H. Pomeroy, of the University of Chicago, at the St. Louis Public Library, 1001 Olive St., beginning Monday, Dec. 6, at 8 o'clock. The lectures are free and open to all.

SKETCHES MADE BY MARGUERITE MARTYN

IN "MOVIE" PLAYHOUSES IN ST. LOUIS SYNOPSIS OF SUBJECTS:

"Close view of pretty ticket seller."
"The crowd at the ticket window."
"Romance in a dark corner of the house."
"Charlie Chaplin's capers tickles the kiddies."
"The girl who shook the hand that shook the hand of a movie star."
"No use for instructive pictures."
"Impressions made by portrayal of domestic infelicity."

See this double page. It is handled in the inimitable Martyn style and is one of the many features of the next Sunday
